* d. During the period 13 - 15 December, an Office of Security team completed a detailed debriefing of William Kampiles. As a result of this debriefing, we are confident that Kampiles took only one document from the Agency and passed that document [REDACTED] He has had no other contacts with the Soviets and has not passed them any additional significant information. e. Security Analysis Group provided representation to an Agency task force which spent Thursday, 14 December, on Capitol Hill, reviewing the House Select Committee on Assassinations overall report on the deaths of President John Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King. The report was very well written. Some sanitization was required, but it was the general feeling that a satisfactory solution could be achieved to protect sources and methods information and meet the Committee's need to publish a meaningful report.
